

What were the military, social, political and economic impacts of the War on the civilian populations of Britain and Germany?

Note down ideas under each heading as to how Britain and Germany were affected by war. You will be able to compare who was worse off as a result of the war. It is important in history for you to be able to weigh up the evidence and come to a judgement.

